FIRST READING: Job:38:1,8-11

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate?

Come thus far, I said, and no farther:
here your proud waves shall break.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 106:23-26,28-3.R.v.1

R: Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters. These men have seen the Lord's deeds, the wonders he does in the deep. R.

For he spoke; he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep; their soul melted away in their distress. R.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper;
all the waves of the sea were hushed. R.

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his love,
the wonders he does for men. R.

SECOND READING: Corinthians 5:14-17

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The Word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia

A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.

Alleluia

GOSPEL: Mark 4:35-41

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down! And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

Father's message

12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME.

We would think that the disciples of Jesus had a great personal relationship with him. They certainly did have a relationship. Yet, they soon discovered that it was a work in progress. At the time of today's passage, they must have already been with him for a while. Yet, they do not seem to know him well.

'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' (Mark 4:40)

After the calming of the storm, they are all the more bewildered, and "filled with awe".

"Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him." (Mark 4:41)

They do have some form of relationship, and yet they need to go so much deeper. They faltered again and again, ran away, betrayed their Master, misunderstood him. He never stopped leading them into a deeper and more complete relationship. Eventually it was so strong, that he was truly the front and centre of their whole life, and they even laid down their life for his sake.

It was a journey. Here comes the point.

How do we learn to have a relationship with Jesus?

Why do we run multiple programmes, why do we make so many offers?

We make multiple, diversified offers because everyone needs to develop their personal relationship with Jesus.

And people respond to different offers, as they cater to different needs. There is no single silver bullet.

Are we expected to take them all? No, we are not. Not all can afford this.

We are invited to various programmes, and we trust that our community members make their choice in God's sight. We are free children of God.

Developing a personal relationship with Jesus is a journey.

Take at least one development opportunity in a year and build on that.

MARRIAGE MATTERS: Make time for each other.

Today the readings speak of turbulence and stormy waters. Life is like that! So, it is in our married relationships. Nothing is ever completely smooth; our lives are often messy and difficult. As a couple, if we take time to take stock and trust in each other and the Lord, we might just hear His encouragement." Quiet now, be calm!"
