FIRST READING: Ecclesiasticus 39:6-10

If it is the will of the great Lord, he will be filled with the spirit of understanding, he will shower forth words of wisdom, and in prayer give thanks to the Lord. He will grow upright in purpose and learning; he will ponder the Lord's hidden mysteries. He will display the instruction he has received, taking pride in the Law of the Lord's covenant. Many will praise his understanding and it will never be forgotten. His memory will not disappear, generation after generation his name will live. Nations will proclaim his wisdom; the assembly will celebrate his praises.

The Word of the Lord. R: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 118 R. v.12

R: Lord, teach me Your decrees.

How shall the young remain sinless?
By obeying Your word.
I have sought You with all my heart:
Let me not stray from Your commands. R

I treasure Your promise in my heart
Lest I sin against You.
Blessed are You. O Lord:
Teach me Your statutes. R

With my tongue I have recounted
The decrees of Your lips.
I rejoiced to do Your will
As though all riches were mine. R

SECOND READING: Timothy 3: 14-17

You must keep to what you have been taught and know to be true: remember who your teachers were, and how, ever since you were a child, you have known the holy scriptures – from these you can learn the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and can profitably be used for teaching, for refuting error, for guiding people's lives and teaching them to be holy.

This is how the man who is dedicated to God becomes fully equipped and ready for any good work.

The Word of the Lord. R: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Acts 16:14

Alleluia, Alleluia!
Open our hearts, O Lord,
to listen to the words of Your Son.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Matthew 13:47-52

Jesus said to the crowds: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet cast into the sea that brings in a haul of all kinds. When it is full, fishermen haul it ashore; then, sitting down, they collect the good ones in a basket and throw away those that are no use. This is how it will be at the end of time: the angels will appear and separate the wicked from the just to throw them into the blazing furnace where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth. "Have you understood all this?" They said, "Yes." And He said to them, "Well then, every scribe who becomes a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out from his storeroom things both new and old.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
R: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ

PRAYER OF SAINT JEROME FOR CHRIST'S MERCY

O Lord, show Your mercy to me and gladden my heart. I am like the man on the way to Jericho who was overtaken by robbers, wounded and left for dead. O Good Samaritan, come to my aid. I am like the sheep that went astray. O Good Shepherd, seek me out and bring me home in accord with Your will. Let me dwell in Your house all the days of my life and praise You for ever and ever with those who are there. Amen.

110th World Day of Migrants and Refugees 2024

God walks with His people:

Message of Pope Francis

"... God not only walks with his people, but also within them, in the sense that he identifies himself with men and women on their journey through history, particularly with the least, the poor and the marginalized. In this we see an extension of the mystery of the Incarnation. ..."

Prayer

God, Almighty Father, we are your pilgrim Church journeying towards the Kingdom of heaven. We live in our homeland, but as if we were foreigners. Every foreign place is our home, yet every native land is foreign to us. Though we live on earth, our true citizenship is in heaven. Do not let us become possessive of the portion of the world you have given us as a temporary home. Help us to keep walking, together with our migrant brothers and sisters, toward the eternal dwelling you have prepared for us. Open our eyes and our hearts so that every encounter with those in need becomes an encounter with Jesus, your Son and our Lord. Amen.

Pope Francis' Prayer for the 110th World Day of Migrants and Refugees 2024

THE STORY OF ST JEROME, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Jerome, born at Stridon in Dalmatia, was baptized at Rome as a young man and studied the liberal arts with Donatus and other very learned men. In the service of religion, he travelled all over Palestine. Then he retired to the vast Syrian Desert, where he spent four years in reading sacred Scripture and in the contemplation of the blessedness of heaven. Ordained priest by Paulinus, Bishop of Antioch, he went back to Palestine. There, near the crib of the Lord Christ in Bethlehem, he led a life patterned after that of heaven itself. He conquered the wiles of the devil with works of devotion and continual reading and writing. Questions on Holy Scripture were referred for explanation to him as to an oracle, being sent to him from all over the world. Pope Damasus and St. Augustine often consulted him on difficult passages in Scripture because of his singular learning and his knowledge not only of Latin and Greek but also of Hebrew and Chaldaic. He translated the Old Testament from the Hebrew; and by command of Pope Damasus, he revised the translation of the New Testament to make it faithful to the Greek text and explained a great part of it. In extreme old age, he made the journey to heaven. His body was buried at Bethlehem and later taken to Rome and buried in the Basilica of St Mary Major.
