FIRST READING: 1 Kings 17:10-16

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said, 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives,' she replied, 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel:

"Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth,"

The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

The Word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 145:7-10.R.v.2

R: Praise the Lord, my soul!

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down. It is the Lord who loves the just, The Lord, who protects the stranger. R.

The Lord upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. R.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 9:24-28

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf.

And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

The Word of the Lord. R Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Mt 5 :3

Alleluia, alleluia!
Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 12:38-44

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

Somascan Young Adults - (Age group 18-30) If you are interested in being part of a welcoming, faith-focused group of young people, St Jerome's Young adults would love for you to join us! Weekly Gathering after the Sunday 6pm Mass in the St Lucy Room (parish hall).

The annual BUSY BEE to clean and prepare the church and hall for the Advent and Christmas Seasons is scheduled for the week of Monday, the 18th to Saturday 23rd of November.

A list of jobs will be placed in the foyer and volunteers may choose a task, day and time that is convenient to them. Our aim is to get as many families as possible to come along and help, so that we can finish the allotted tasks over the week.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL CHRISTMAS GIFTS

The St Jerome's St Vincent de Paul conference will be delivering Christmas hampers to families in our local area prior to Christmas. This year we want to also be able to provide a small gift to the children in these families. We are calling on our generous, kind-hearted parishioners to help us in this activity.

In the coming weeks a Christmas tree will be in our Church foyer. On the tree will be a tag with the name of a child, their age and their gender. We encourage you to take a tag, purchase a gift appropriate to the child, wrap and label the gift and then place it back under the tree.

By supporting this we will be able to ensure children of families that are doing it tough in our local area will still be able to enjoy the joy of Christmas. We look forward to you supporting this initiative.

VITAL ROLE OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS IN WESTERN AUSTRALIA

We are excited to announce that our parish will be sharing a short video filmed by Archbishop Timothy Costelloe highlighting the essential role Catholic schools have played in West Australian communities for over 150 years. This video emphasises the accessibility and affordability of Catholic education, reassuring prospective parents that there is a Catholic school to meet every child's needs.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S CHRISTMAS APPEAL FOR LIKELINK is being held throughout the Archdiocese this weekend.

If you did not take the Archbishop's Appeal letter at Mass last weekend, please collect one today, or use one of the special giving envelopes, which have been provided on the pews.

We urge you to give generously to help the work of our Archdiocesan agencies which reach out to care for our brothers and sisters struggling in the community.

You may mail your donation directly in the reply-paid envelope provided or return your envelope & donation to the parish at any time over the coming weeks.

You may also donate (securely) online by credit card at www.lifelink.com.au

Catholic Mission & the Centre for Liturgy invites us all to the 2024 Advent Reflection on Modern Slavery.

Titled, 'A Season for Hope', this is a beautiful classical & sacred music event, performed by some of Perth's premier musicians at St Mary's Cathedral on Monday 25 November.

Gathering at 6.30pm for a 7pm start, this concert will shine a light on the problem of modern slavery and on what we can do to eradicate its impact on the lives of vulnerable people.

So please book a ticket to this inspirational musical experience by going online to <https://www.trybooking.com/CVWHK>.

We look forward to seeing you there and celebrating together a start to the season of Hope that is Advent.

Instruction Ad resurgendum cum Christo regarding the burial of the deceased and the conservation of the ashes in the case of cremation

To rise with Christ, we must die with Christ: we must "be away from the body and at home with the Lord" (2 Cor 5:8).

Holy Office established that "all necessary measures must be taken to preserve the practice of reverently burying the faithful departed".

When, for legitimate motives, cremation of the body has been chosen, the ashes of the faithful must be laid to rest in a sacred place, that is, in a cemetery or, in certain cases, in a church or an area, which has been set aside for this purpose, and so dedicated by the competent ecclesial authority.

The conservation of the ashes of the departed in a domestic residence is not permitted. The ashes may not be divided among various family members and due respect must be maintained regarding the circumstances of such a conservation.

It is not permitted to scatter the ashes of the faithful departed in the air, on land, at sea or in some other way, nor may they be preserved in mementos, pieces of jewellery or other objects.

When the deceased notoriously has requested cremation and the scattering of their ashes for reasons contrary to the Christian faith, a Christian funeral must be denied to that person according to the norms of the law.
